Housing Accommodation Request Form

The University of New England (“UNE” or “University”) recognizes the importance of providing reasonable accommodation in its housing policies and practices where necessary for students with disabilities to use and enjoy University housing. A reasonable accommodation is an exception to the usual rules or policies that a resident with a disability may need to have an equal opportunity to use and enjoy University housing.

Please complete this form and return it to the Student Access Center as soon as practicably possible before moving into University housing. If the request for accommodation is made fewer than 60 days before you intend to move into University housing, UNE cannot guarantee that it will be able to meet the your accommodation needs during the first semester or term of occupancy. More information is available in the UNE Housing Reasonable Accommodation Policy.
